

Please do not implement any proposal that will lessen the Indiana Telephone Privacy Act. The unwanted calls to my home have lessened dramatically. Even with Caller ID, it is impossible at times to know who is calling due to their disguised or misleading identifications. Our Privacy Act has been a great asset.